TWENTYNINTH SUMMARTÓNAR JUNE-AUGUST 2020

Summartónar

This year the Association of Faroese Composers (Felagið Føroysk Tónaskøld) celebrates the 29th Summartónar festival.

The majority of the programme is of Faroese music, performed by Faroese musicians. However, Summartónar is also an international event with visiting performers, composers, and song-writers from around the world: this year from Finland, Sweden, Denmark, Iceland, Spain, Norway, Siberia, Germany, England, Wales, Italy, Slovenia and Greenland.

A brief history of Summartónar

Beginning in 1984, Faroese composers started organizing concerts of their own music together with works by international composers. After establishing the Association of Faroese Composers (Felagið Føroysk Tónaskøld) in 1987, these concerts became more regular, especially with the annual Spring Concert and a series of concerts over the summer in collaboration with the Listasavn Føroya. In 1991 a concert with works by several Faroese composers was presented at the St Magnus Festival in Orkney. After participating at a festival in a community comparable with the Faroe Islands, we decided to establish a similar festival the following year in the Faroes. We used the name Summartónar from the beginning and in 1992 15 concerts were held in Tórshavn, Kirkjubøur, and Runavík with compositions by William Heinesen, Edvard Nyholm Debess, Alti K. Petersen, Pauli í Sandagerði, Heðin Meitil, Bjarni Restorff, Ólavur Jøkladal, H.J. Højgaard, Esmar Jacobsen, Sunleif Rasmussen, Kristian Blak, Richard Stanley, and Graeme Rudd in addition to classical repertoire.

Since these early years, the musical scene in the Faroes has gone from strength to strength and our festival reflects the diversity and creativity of today's musicians who bring Faroese music to the world and international music to the Faroes. Over the years Summartónar has grown from a short concert series to a three-month long festival with more than 150 events.

Aldubáran 25 years

The Faroese ensemble Aldubáran has been central to the development of Summartónar. The musicians who formed the group in 1995 had all been active in the previous festivals and their individual contributions made the very first Summartónar possible. Members of Aldubáran are featured on the front cover of this year's programme.
